

A Lost Musical Instrument

遗失的传统乐器

Canadian Chinese Orchestra has launched a brand new educational program A Lost Musical Instrument during our 2018-2019 season. Mainly to promote and encourage learning of the Sheng and Suona. These two instruments are very important parts of Chinese traditional music family. Successful applicants will receive scholarship to learn one of these instruments and the instrument will be given out as part of the scholarship.

What are the benefits of the program?

- Expand the knowledge of playing wind instruments
- Learn an rare instrument that others are curious about
- Actively join Chinese festive events and perform with a Chinese Orchestra
- A closer encounter with Chinese culture and Chinese language learning through music
- An unique experience to work closely with a professional music teacher
- Performance opportunities towards the end of the program (June 2019)

Who is eligible to apply for the program?

- Anyone who are older than 8 years old
- People who have previous musical training knowledge will be considered first
- Residents of Greater Toronto Area

How much does the program cost?

2. If you are paying in Cash, you can also hand it in on the first day of program

Registration Fee cheque(s) will be returned via mail to unsuccessful applicants.

What is the time commitment for program?

There will be weekly private lessons to be arranged between the teacher and applicant upon acceptance into the program, either in the form of 45 minutes one to one format or 1.5 hour of semi private lesson format. Students are expected to join extra rehearsals starting February 2019 to rehearse for the June 2019 performance.

During Lessons:

The following are a list of guidelines that we expect to be followed in order for the smooth and functional operation of the ensemble. We want to make the most of our time together. Please read the list carefully and sign the acknowledgment form page.

Lesson Rules:

- Please arrive 5 minutes earlier for each lesson
- Students are expected a minimum of 5 hours of practice time each week
- No food or drink are permitted within the lesson space. Water with a tightly sealed lid is acceptable
- Please bring your music, instrument, and pencil to lesson
- Be respectful to the teacher

Absences:

- You're permitted 3 absences from the program throughout the year, any additional requires a doctor's note or consent from the Instructor
- Please notify the instructor at least 6 hours prior to any absence
- Absences which are excused from the above statements include: funeral services, school exams, and family emergencies. If you have any questions please speak with the teacher

The Canadian Chinese Orchestra reserves the right to terminate the program if the students have not meet the above terms.
